A little boy told his Grandma how "everything" was going wrong. He was having problems with school and his friends, and even his computer was broken. Meanwhile, his Grandmother was baking a cake.

She asks her grandson if he would like a snack.

He answered an enthusiastic, "Yes!"

She said, "Here, have some cooking oil."

"Yuck!" answered the boy.

"How about a couple raw eggs?"

"No, grandmother."

She then asked, "Would you like some flour or baking soda?"

The amazed little boy said, "Those things are bad."

The grandmother replied, "Yes, all those things seem bad all by themselves. But when put together in the right way, they make a wonderfully delicious cake!"

The truth is that life is composed of many good things and some bad things. What we do with the good and the bad determines who and what we become. Don't get me wrong. Tough times are no fun, but they sure can make us better and stronger if we face and deal with them.

Why The White Hair?

One day a little girl was sitting and watching her mother do the dishes at the kitchen sink. She suddenly noticed that her mother had several strands of white hair sticking out in contrast on her brunette head.

She looked at her mother and inquisitively asked, “Why are some of your hairs white, Momma?”

Her mother replied, “Well, every time that you do something wrong and make me cry or unhappy, one of my hairs turns white.”

The little girl thought about this revelation for a while, and then said, “Momma, how come ALL of grandma’s hairs are white?”
