TO OUR FRIENDS:

I sat on the park bench just the other day,
And watched as the little children came to play.
Each child had a mother who was tagging along,
To make sure they played safely, that nothing went wrong.
Each time a child fell they would run to her arms,
And know the assurances that her loving voice charms.
For a child can look in their mom's wondrous eyes
And see love outpouring and feel safe as she sighs.
Then I thought about mothers whose children are grown
And realized that loving assurance is still the best known.
For even children who are older need love now and then,
To remember they are special and that they can win.
For mothers don't give up even when we make mistakes,
They're still right there loving no matter what it takes.
God gave us flowers to brighten our days
To help us see beauty as we go on our ways.
But he gave each of us a Mother and everyone knows
That this gift is more precious than even the sweetest rose.

Be the Best of Whatever You Are By Douglas Malloch

If you can't be a pine on the top of the hill
Be a scrub in the valley - but be
The best little scrub by the side of the rill;
Be a bush if you can't be a tree.
If you can't be a bush be a bit of the grass,
And some highway some happier make;
If you can't be a muskie then just be a bass -
But the liveliest bass in the lake!
We can't all be captains, we've got to be crew,
There's something for all of us here.
There's big work to do and there's lesser to do,
And the task we must do is near.
If you can't be a highway then just be a trail,
If you can't be the sun be a star.
It isn't by size that you win or you fail -
Be the best of whatever you are!

USA MAP

A father wanted to read a magazine but was being bothered by his little girl. She wanted to know what the United States looked like. Finally, he tore a sheet out of his new magazine on which was printed the map of the country. Tearing it into small pieces, he gave it to her and said, 'Go into the other room and see if you can put this together. After a few minutes, she returned and handed him the map, correctly fitted and taped together. The father was surprised and asked how she had finished so quickly... 'Oh,' she said, 'on the other side of the paper is a picture of Jesus. When I got all of Jesus back where He belonged, then our country just came together.'
