

WELCOME VISITORS

The presence of Jesus in the gathering of His people is the sweetest blessing we enjoy when we meet.
We pray that you will find peace, comfort, and power for living today.

A visitor's card is provided in the book rack, to give us a record of your visit.

CLEAN HOUSE

Charlie Gamble (Fort Recovery, OH)

One of the TV shows that Lois and I watch is "Cleaning House." It highlights people that have accumulated so many things that the things have taken over the house. The things rule them. Generally, when asked to part with something, they respond with, "I am attached to my things."

Does this remind you of when we are told to clean our spiritual house such as in Romans 13:12 "Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light"? Too often we reply with, "I am attached to my things."

At the end of Cleaning House the people are always amazed at what their house looks like after some de-cluttering. Well, God has made us an even better promise than any TV show. His Son promised us a mansion in Heaven. In order to live there we need to do some earthly de-cluttering. I am sure that we will be amazed, too.

We should strive to keep our life clean before God and man all the time. "Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us," Heb 12:1 (NKJV)
