BUTTERFLIES

Charlie Gamble (Fort Recovery, OH)

Have you ever seen a butterfly trying to go against the wind? They are pretty much at the mercy of even the slightest breeze. Sadly there are some Christians that are the same way. They go wherever the winds are blowing. Paul addressed this in the Ephesian letter, "that we should no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the cunning craftiness of deceitful plotting, but, speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the head--Christ--(Eph 4:14-15 (NKJV)).

We often find ourselves going against the prevailing winds of the religious world. But just because the majority is blowing a certain way does not make it right. Paul says that we are to speak the truth in love. We must do the right thing regardless of what others are doing. We are Christians not butterflies.

The Grumbler

In every town and city
Some people can be found
Who spend their time in grumbling
At everything around.
They grumble if we speak to them;
They grumble if we don't;
They grumble if we visit them;
They grumble if we don't.
The grumble at the preaching;
They grumble at the prayers.
They grumble at the singing;
They grumble everywhere.
But if we live for Jesus
And persecutions bear,
When we get to heaven,
There will be no grumblers there!
