Turkey Hotline By Shane Robinson

A telephone hotline was set up to answer questions about how to prepare and cook holiday turkeys. That's right! The Butterball Turkey Company was ready to answer consumer questions about cooking turkey. One woman called to see if a turkey she had in her freezer would be suitable for baking. She told the representative how it had been in the bottom of her freezer for 23 years (yes, 23 YEARS).

The Butterball representative said the turkey would be safe to eat if the freezer had been kept below zero for the entire 23 years, but even if the turkey was safe to eat, the flavor would probably have deteriorated to such a degree that she would not recommend eating it. The caller replied, "That's what I thought. We'll give the turkey to our church." This was a true story shared by Paul Harvey a few years ago (Paul Harvey, daily radio broadcast, (11.22.95).

We may get a chuckle out of this story, but we must make sure we are not like the woman who wanted to give the 23 year old turkey to God's people.

- We may be like the lady when we do not assist others in the work of the church because it does not benefit us – the lady in the story probably just wanted to get the turkey out of the freezer.
- We may be like the lady when we do not truly give as we have been prospered – the lady in the story wanted to give God the leftovers.
- We may be like the lady when we do not leave the right impression on others when we speak about the church – the lady in the story showed how much Christianity meant to her.

"...The Churches of Christ salute you." Romans 16:16

Let Me Give

I do not know how long I'll live
 But while I live, Lord, let me give Some comfort to someone in need
 By smile for not-kind word or deed.
 And let me do whate'er I can
 To ease things for my fellow man.
 I want naught but to do my part
 To lift a tired or weary heart.
 To change folks' frowns to smiles again-
 Then I will not have lived in vain,
 And I'll not care how long I'll live
 If I can give-and give-and give.

Begin Each Day...
 By Clay Harrison

Begin each day with a simple prayer to let God know you're glad He's there.
 Praise Him for the things He's done
 as He unveils the morning sun.
 Rise and shine; get out of bed,
 and thank Him for the day ahead.
 Wear a smile, don't look depressed;
 show the world that you've been blessed.
 Stand straight and tall, don't be afraid
 for this is the day the Lord has made!

Deaths

The ladies bible study has been cancelled this week and will resume on November 30, 2010 in the fellowship room.

Whenever I'm disappointed with my spot
 in life, I stop and think about little Jamie Scott.
 Jamie was trying out for a part in the school play. His mother told me that he'd set his heart on being in it, though she feared he would not be chosen.

On the day the parts were awarded, I went with her to collect him after school. Jamie rushed up to her, eyes shining with pride and excitement.
 'Guess what, Mom,' he shouted, and then said those words that will remain a lesson to me....'I've been chosen to clap and cheer.'
