GPS

Charlie Gamble—Fort Recovery, OH

I seldom go anywhere without my GPS. Even if I have gone a certain way many times, I still have it with me. You never know when there might be an unexpected detour. Sometimes it reveals options that I didn't know were available.

On occasion my trip has been interrupted by a need to change destinations. It sure does come in handy then. The only problem

I have had is that it isn't always accurate.

A couple of weeks ago it took me to an empty lot instead of a treatment center. On my first visit to Ft. Recovery, I ended up in Mendon. I have been telling everyone about this glitch

I do have one GPS that never leads me astray. It's my God Positioning System, the Bible. It always shows me the correct way to my destination of Heaven. I have been known to get lost along the way but it always gets me back on the strait and narrow path. I am trying to tell everyone about this too. I don't want to open my eyes after death and find myself at an empty lot or even Mendon.

“...The Churches of Christ salute you.” Romans 16:16

The Men’s meeting will be held next Sunday at 5:00 pm. You are encouraged to attend.

Making Missionaries
 Otis Keener observed, “Missionaries are not made by crossing the sea, but by seeing the cross.” If we truly see the cross as we should, then we will want to reach out to the lost everywhere. The love of Christ constrains or compels us to do so (2 Corinthians 5:14).
