MY HEROES

Charlie Gamble-Fort Recovery, Ohio

Early Tuesday morning (while it was still dark) Lois, Malysa and I happened upon a bad traffic accident. I was able to help out at the scene then continued on our way to the hospital. Lois and Malysa went to the lab while I reported to the ER, since I was the chaplain for the week.

Soon the injured began to arrive. I stayed out of the way and watched the teams as they received each patient. It was a very impressive display of professionalism. All the resources of the hospital were brought to bear on the situation. Staff was running but not panicked. Soon the Life Flight staff from another hospital arrived to transport one patient to another facility. Again, everything moved quickly and efficiently.

I am reminded that this scene repeats itself more often that I like to consider. I will pray for the ones who were injured but I will, also, give God thanks for those who are ready to serve us in many ways that we may not consider until it's needed.

“...The Churches of Christ salute you.” Romans 16:16

There will be a business meeting next Sunday at 5:00 pm. All the men are encouraged to attend.

Lessons from a Child

A father started to read a magazine, but his little girl Jessica kept interrupting him. Finally, he tore a sheet out of his magazine on which was printed the map of the world. Tearing it into small pieces, he gave it to Jessica and said, “Go into the other room and see if you can put this together.”

After a few minutes, Jessica returned and handed him the map correctly fitted together. The father was surprised and asked how she had finished so quickly. “Oh,” she said, “on the other side of the paper is a picture of Jesus. When I got all of Jesus back where he belonged, then the world came together.”

Palm Sunday

It was Palm Sunday but because of a sore throat, 5-year-old Johnny stayed home from church with a sitter. When the family returned home, they were carrying several palm fronds. Johnny asked them what they were for.

"People held them over Jesus' head as he walked by," his father told him.

"Wouldn't you know it," Johnny fumed, "the one Sunday I don't go and he shows up."
