TO OUR FRIENDS:

No offence to my little dog but I noticed the other day that she really had a bad odor. Each time she went out she would come back wet. There is something about the smell of wet dogs that makes me want to check my socks. After she went in for her monthly grooming, there was quite a change. Lois asked the groomer about the smell and she told us about dog cologne. Always on the lookout for another article topic I thought about that.

I thought about the odor of sin in our life. It is repulsive. The odor of ruined and spoiled lives is hard to bear. Many are not aware that the scent of their sinful lifestyle is noticeable to others. This can be remedied, though. Remove the rotten sin from our life and replace it with the fragrance of righteous living. Apply God's cologne by putting on Christ and living for Him (Gal 3:26:27). For we are to God the fragrance of Christ among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing. 2 Cor. 2:15 (NKJV) Are you wearing your God cologne?

A Message From The Devil

Dear Members and Friends of the church,

I secretly visited your Bible classes recently and was overjoyed to see that so many of you had not come. I heard some lessons that were not very well prepared and other teachers said no visits had been made during the week. I was simply delighted! It thrilled me to see some leave the worship service right after the Lord's Supper was over, indicating that they were not going to let the proclamation of God's Word come near to them. I saw some others come just in time for the worship - to sit glassy-eyed with their mouths shut while a few sang the hymns. Then they dozed or acted bored to death while the preacher went through his Sunday morning ritual and humdrum or "bore -a-tory." I was especially pleased to note how many failed to bring an offering. I love to see the church in financial difficulty. Again, there was a sparkle in my eyes when I returned Sunday night and saw that so many did not come back for the evening worship hour. I was so very glad. I am writing this letter to encourage you to forsake the worship this coming Sunday. It will be more comfortable for you, and besides, it will make my work much easier to do. Hoping to be with you real soon!

Deceitfully yours,

THE DEVIL
