TO OUR FRIENDS:

During an afternoon nap last week, I had a dream that Jesus returned to Earth to check on things. He came upon a place where many had gathered on a Sunday. Presuming it to be a gathering of the church, He entered in to the meeting place. Initially He was greeted at the door and asked if He had come for breakfast. "No!, He replied," as questions began to arise in His head. "Well you are still eligible for the door prize," said the greeter. Jesus was puzzled but continued on to the auditorium.

Soon the lights dimmed on the stage and a leader appeared to begin a service. A "praise team" sang to the audience. They were accompanied by a band on stage, too. Immediately Jesus thought, "This has gone far enough already."

He stood and stormed the stage. The drum stands and guitar amps were overturned. He made a cord of electric wires and bean to drive them all from the stage.

At this point, I woke up from my nap. I'm not sure what to make of it. How about you?

“...The Churches of Christ salute you.” Romans 16:16

We will have our Fellowship meal next Sunday. Bring your favorite food dish and help us celebrate the July birthdays and anniversaries.

Men's Meeting

There will be a men's meeting next Sunday following worship services.

Seven Deadly Sins

Politics without principle,
Wealth without work,
Pleasure without conscience,
Knowledge without character,
Business without morality,
Science without humanity, and
Worship without practice.
Author Unknown

"Somebody has said there are only two kinds of people in the world. There are those who wake up in the morning and say, "Good morning, Lord," and there are those who wake up in the morning and say, "Good Lord, its morning."
