WILL GOD REALLY PUNISH?

Charlie Gamble.....Fort Recovery church of Christ

Sometimes when discussing error with others I am confronted with the question: Do you think God will really punish someone because of that?

I have decided to interview some people from the Bible about that but I am having trouble reaching them. Here are the topics along with the last known location of those who were in error:

Lying: (Acts 5:1-11) Ananias and Sapphira

Disobedience: (Lev 10:1-2) Nadab and Abihu

Arrogance: (Acts 12:21-23) Herod

Worshipping a false god: (I Kings 18:21-40) Prophets of Baal

Actually, I don't need to interview them. I just need to believe this: For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Romans 15:4 (NKJV)

“...The Churches of Christ salute you.” Romans 16:16

There will be a men’s meeting today following the worship services.

In The World, But Not Of The World

We are to be in the world but not of the world. This can be illustrated by noticing the submarine. It is in the water but not of the water. If it is on the ground (out of the water) it is of no purpose...it is not accomplishing its mission. But when it is in the water it must be insulated (not isolated) from the water. If the water ever gets into the submarine then there is cause for alarm and emergency. We must be insulated from the world but not isolated from it. We must live blameless and without fault in the midst of a perverse world (cf. 1 Philippians 2:15) [selected] Via Bulletin Gold
