A Reflection of God's Glory By Ron Thomas

Paul said that for him to live is Christ, but to die is gain. This is an interesting remark. How many of us look forward to leaving this life and going on to the next? Many of us will answer the question in the same way that Paul did, and why shouldn't we? Yet, Paul knew that he would continue on in this life when he wrote what he did to the Philippians. Since he was convinced that he would continue on in this (his) present physical life – even while he was currently in prison – he knew he was doing so in order to benefit the Philippians (among others). Our life is a benefit to, and for whom? Let us all, as Paul told the church at Philippi, have our lives reflect God's glory.

A Humorous Story...With a Point

Mildred, the church gossip, and self-appointed monitor of the church's morals, kept sticking her nose into other people's business.... Several members did not approve of her extracurricular activities, but feared her enough to maintain their silence...

She made a mistake, however, when she accused Frank, a new member, of being an alcoholic after she saw his old pickup parked in front of the town's only bar one afternoon. She emphatically told Frank (and several others) that everyone seeing it there WOULD KNOW WHAT HE WAS DOING!

Frank, a man of few words, stared at her for a moment and just turned and walked away... He didn't explain, defend, or deny... He said nothing....

Later that evening, Frank quietly parked his pickup in front of Mildred's house ... walked homeand left it there all night !!!
(You gotta love Frank!)

~“Judge not, that you be not judged. For with what judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you.” Matthew 7:1,2

If I Give...

...Nothing...I cast my ballot in favor of closing the church. I discourage others.

...Sparingly...I vote to close all missionary work. I refuse to obey God.

...Grudgingly...I find no joy in giving. I will not receive the Lord's blessings.

...Systematically...I make it possible for the work of the Lord to be planned. I make it easier for myself to give.

...Proportionately...I shall be blessed in my giving whether it is small or great.

...Sacrificially...I worship God in my giving. I shall encourage others to maintain a service of love and compassion.
