Satan Will Provide A Way

by: Charles E. Moore

When Jonah was attempting to flee from God, he found a ship conveniently waiting for him. Satan made it very convenient for him to disobey or ignore God's command. When Adam and Eve had sinned and sought for some way to attempt to justify their wrong, Satan provided an excuse for both.

Some folks say, "Yes, we will be in services Sunday if nothing happens" or "I'll be happy to help if something doesn't come up." When I hear that, I know immediately that they will not be present, for Satan will see that something will happen - that something will come up.

When we look for a way to forsake the assembly, a way to not give as we have prospered, a way to get out of working for the Lord, or for some way to justify our sins, Satan will provide a way!
