Longing For Home
By Patrick Hogan

The last six weeks of the year bring a real concentration of holidays. At last two of those holidays generally involve family time when folks look forward to either being back home or having family members from somewhat distant locations come back home. The reunions are usually anticipated and enjoyed.

With such thoughts in mind, perhaps we should focus on the ultimate homecoming. In John 14:1-3 Jesus told His disciples, "Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. In My Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also." What a glorious thought! Jesus will come again to take His people home to the Father's house!

While there may be things we do not fully understand about Heaven, this much is certain - a place described as the "Father's House" must be a truly wonderful place to be! To live eternally in the presence of God and Jesus, who gave Himself for us, will be far more joyful than we can comprehend.

As we enjoy family reunions let us be reminded of that great Homecoming. Let's make sure that we are preparing for that day when Jesus will return to take us to the Father's House where we can be with Him forever!

Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

Kid's Humor

It was the end of the day when I parked my police van in front of the station. As I gathered my equipment, my K-9 partner, Jake, was barking, and I saw a little boy staring in at me. 'Is that a dog you got back there?' he asked. 'It sure is,' I replied. Puzzled, the boy looked at me and then towards the back of the van. Finally he said, 'What'd he do?'
