Glory

By Chris Tiegreen

Imagine having the world's most valuable masterpiece, a work of art that would bring thirty or forty million dollars if you auctioned it. Then imagine that instead of taking that masterpiece to the auction, you took it to a pawn shop, pawned it for twenty bucks and blew the whole wad on crayons and paper so you could decorate your own walls.

Or imagine being offered a lifetime pass to the city's best buffet spread, only to reject it in favor of one meal at a truck stop. Silly? Ludicrous? Absolutely insane? All of that and more. People with even an ounce of sense don't squander glory on garbage. But that's what idolatry is. That's what the people of Judah were doing in Jeremiah's day, and that's what we do with alarming ease today.

Think about how much God is worth. He can create anything, so whatever we have, He has something better. He governs and sustains everything, so every circumstance we encounter must bow to Him. And He has promised lavish blessings for eternity. So, all our cravings will be extravagantly exceeded by His good gifts. Logically, there's nothing we would take in exchange for a relationship with this God. Practically, that's exactly what we often do.

Labor of Love

The Labor of Love will meet Saturday, February 23rd, in the fellowship room at noon. Our devotion will be presented by Belinda Lloyd. Don't forget to bring your gifts of love for Hope Harbor and Kerin's kids.

There will be a men's meeting next Sunday at 5:00 pm. Please mark your calendars.

Congratulations to Hannah Garner. She is now a graduate of the DARE program in which she participated at her school.

The complete prayer list is on the bulletin board.

The ladies bible study will be held Tuesday, at 10:00 am in the fellowship room. We will continue our series on "Parables of Jesus". Our time together will include prayer and songs of praise.

You are welcome to join us.

BEING THANKFUL

A minister said to a precocious six-year-old boy, "So your mother says your prayers for you each night? That's very commendable. What does she say?"

The little boy replied, "Thank God he's in bed!"

Prov. 17:22 "A cheerful heart is good Medicine..."
