How Many?
Phil Ware

How many workers does it take to clean up a small key fuel spill at LAX? 12!
That's not counting the two police men in their car watching.

Here's the count:

2 to spread speed dry and push brooms.

1 to talk on a walkie talkie.

9 to supervise and watch.

Sound familiar?

It could be a service organization or the Post Office or a road patching project or a neighborhood cleanup project or... Let's be honest here, church!

Everybody wants somebody to do what anybody could do but nobody wants to expend the effort to do it.

While we are all gifted by God to have a spiritual gift, most people often spend more time talking about what it might be or trying to discover it than trying different things that need to be done and seeing if God brings His delight and confirmation to it!

So the next time you look at a worksite or a project or a customer service counter or a foyer at church and see a lot of people and not much action ask yourself two questions: Which one of these people am I most like: the two with the brooms doing all the work or the one on the walkie talkie trying to look important or the nine standing around doing nothing trying to look busy?

How can I help and bless someone in the name of Jesus?

How many does it take to bless someone else? Just ONE — you!

Taking Turns
By Dennis Lynn

There is a tender story told about an ailing mother who was resting in her bed when her nine-year-old daughter walked in. The daughter quietly unfolded a blanket and tucked it around her mother.

"You know, " the mother said, "It hasn't been that long since I was tucking you in, and now here you are covering me up." The little girl smiled, kissed her on the cheek, whispered, "We take turns," and then skipped out of the room.

That little girl, with innocence and insight, stated a truth for our time. "We take turns" in the family of God when we love each other, serve each other, and encourage each other. Let's not miss the opportunities.

Let's not let them slip by. Let's keep our eyes and hearts open. Let's remember: we take turns!

SMILE A WHILE—

Since the spoiled little boy seldom left his mother's side in all his five years, his parents were naturally concerned when he came home from his first day of school. "Tell me," cried the mother as she hugged him. "Did you cry at school today?" "No," said the little terror, "but the teacher did."
