A Caring Church

by: Edd Sterchi

The title phrase is one commonly heard when describing particular congregations. But what does it mean to be a caring church? Is this church a caring church? Let's find out.

A Caring Church is a Sharing Church. A caring church is thankful Christ has shared with them and thus is willing to share with others (Heb. 13:16; 1 Tim. 6:18; 2 Cor. 9:13). A caring church shares with one another, both blessings and burdens (Eph. 4:16; 1 Tim. 6:18). A caring church shares the gospel with the lost and shares with those who spread the gospel (Philemon 6; Phil. 4:15).

A Caring Church is a Declaring Church. A caring church is one that declares Jesus as Lord and Savior (1 John 1:1-3; Rom. 1:1-3). A caring church is one which declares the whole counsel of God (Acts 20:27; 1 Cor. 2:1). A caring church is one that will declare praise to God in proper worship (Heb. 2:12; 1 Cor. 15:1-2).

A Caring Church is a Preparing Church. A caring church is one that prepares for eternity (1 Cor. 2:9; Heb. 11:16). A caring church is one that prepares its members to live pure, faithful, and active lives for Christ (2 Tim. 2:21-22; Eph. 2:10). A caring church makes all future preparations in harmony with the will of God (Eph. 6:15; cf 2 Chron. 35:6 as an example).

A caring church cares for others, cares for what is right, and cares for God, and as a result will always be sharing, declaring, and preparing. Do you care enough to be a part of a caring church?

 Bible study starts at 6:30 PM.

Angela Hamilton, Christi Heeter's sister, had been previously baptized for the remission of sins. She has repented of her previous association and asked to be a member of the church of Christ. She has been worshiping with the Captain's Cove group on Oak Island with Charlie Gamble this Summer. She lives in Lexington, Ky and will be leaving the island on the 4th for a college trip to London.

2 Chronicles 7:14
 If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.
