Selling Out

There was a song several years ago that had this line in it. "When you come close to selling out, reconsider." The Christian life is not always one of happiness. We face many difficulties in our effort to be faithful to God.

One can look at the life of Joseph to see that a godly life will at times put us in trying circumstances. But thru all of Joseph's trials (family members against him, slavery, false charges by Potipher's wife, being imprisoned) he always seemed to stay focused on what was the most important thing in life, obedience to God.

As Christians facing the evil and temptations of this world we can be pressured to look for an easy way out. It is during these times we need to reconsider and remember God's help is always present, we are not alone (Revelation 2:10) and a reward awaits the faithful that nothing on this earth can match. (Psalm 16:11)

Little Bobby was spending the weekend with his grandmother. His grandmother decided to take him to the park on Saturday morning. It had been snowing all night and everything was white and beautiful. His grandmother remarked, “Doesn’t it look like an artist painted this scenery? Did you know God painted this just for you?” Bobby said, “Yes, God did it and he did it left-handed.” This confused his grandmother a bit, so she asked him, “What makes you say God did this with his left hand?” “Well,” said Bobby, “we learned at Sunday School last week that Jesus sits on God’s right hand!” (See Matt. 22:44; Mark 12:36; Luke 20:42).
