Watch Your Words

By Roger Rush

At one time or another, we have all said things we later regretted. No one is immune to the foot-in-mouth disease. James wrote: "For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body" (James 3:2). The tongue is a dangerous thing when unbridled.

Paul warned against the misuse of the tongue when he wrote: "But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. Lie not one to another" (Colossians 3:8,9). Christians should not slander others, should not use profanities or vulgarities, and should not lie. In a positive way, what we say should be kind, pure, and true! Every word we speak should be examined to make sure it passes this threefold test. Is it kind? Is it pure? Is it true?

It is not only important that we say the right things but that we say them in the right way. "A soft answer turneth away wrath; but grievous words stir up anger" (Proverbs 15:1). When someone shouts at us, "I'm not angry!" we can be confident they are. That is why James also wrote: "...let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to wrath" (James 1:19).

In The Echoes of Praise
By J. Randal Matheny

What God will do in the echoes of praise,
We'll see beyond fast Jordan's shore;
For years cannot tell, nor numbers of days,
The powers at work God holds in store,
Nor time can show his hidden ways.
