What Does It Mean to
"WAIT FOR HIS SON FROM HEAVEN"?
By Larry Miles

The Apostle Paul commends the Christians in Thessalonica for their faithfulness. He tells them that the news of their faith was spread beyond their home. Other Christians have heard of their commitment to the Lord Jesus (1 Thess. 21:6-8). In 1Thess. 1:6 we are told that they were imitators of the Lord. It was not a "bed of roses" for them when they accepted the Lord Jesus and began to follow Him.

They became an example to others—O that it could be said of us today that we live lives so close to Jesus that others will want to "conform to the image of the Son of God." They left a life of idol worship with no hope of salvation and no hope of an eternity outside of the "Lake of Fire." We are told in 1 Thess. 1:9 that they made a complete turn-around in their lives and identified with the Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Thess. 1:10 gives us the words in our title. Jesus is coming again! That is not just a pipe dream; it is a reality! We don't know when He will come; it may be today. We are told here to be "waiting" for His return. What does that entail? Watching for the Lord Jesus in the Scriptures means that while we are waiting, we are "watching," and working for Him. We sing a song written by Fanny Crosby:

"Blessed are those whom the Lord finds watching.
In His glory they shall share.
If He shall come at the dawn or midnight,
Will He find us watching there?"

 True waiting involves working for the Lord Jesus, not a working to be saved but working because you are saved. We are saved by grace through faith, in baptism, unto good works. Let's be like the Thessalonians and be a people who live our lives for the Lord so that others see us and glorify God (Matthew 5:14-18).

The men's meeting will be held next Sunday at 5:00 pm. You are encouraged to attend.

A little girl asked her mother, "Where did people come from?"
 Her mother answered, "God made Adam and Eve and they had children and that's how all mankind was made."
 A couple of days later she asked her father the same question.
 The father answered, "Many years ago there were monkeys, which the human race evolved from."
 The confused little girl returned to her mother and said, "Mommy, how is it possible that you told me that we were created by God, and Daddy said we came from monkeys?"
 The mother answered, "Well, dear, it is very simple. I told you about my side of the family and your father told you about his."
