TO OUR FRIENDS:

MESSENGER FOR CHRIST

BRUNSWICK CHURCH OF CHRIST

November 16, 2014

There's More To Come
By Steve Higginbotham

I recently read that in the year 1815, Napoleon gathered his French forces at Waterloo to battle against the Duke of Wellington. Of course, history informs us that Napoleon was defeated at Waterloo, but how did the people living in 1815 learn of the news?

To carry the news of the Battle of Waterloo to England, an English ship signaled to a man on shore, who then relayed the word to a man on another hill, and so on across England. The first word that was signaled from the ship was "Wellington." The next word that was signaled was "defeated."

Then a fog rolled in, and the message stopped.

As you can imagine, all across England people wept and were disheartened by the two word message, "Wellington defeated." But when the fog lifted, the message continued with two additional words, "the enemy." Hope arose out of despair!

Now here's my point. What do you think the world and even the disciples of Jesus thought when they saw the events that transpired on the Friday of the crucifixion? But Friday contained only a portion of the message. The rest of the message was shared on Sunday through an empty tomb. Hope arose out of despair!

"...The Churches of Christ salute you." Romans 16:16

Just Some Humor

A minister waited in line to have his car filled with gas just before a long holiday weekend. The attendant worked quickly, but there were many cars ahead of him. Finally, the attendant motioned him toward a vacant pump. "Preacher," said the young man, "I'm so sorry about the delay. It seems as if everyone waits until the last minute to get ready for a long trip." The minister chuckled, "I know what you mean. It's the same in my business."

The complete prayer list is on the bulletin board.

"Somebody has said there are only two kinds of people in the world. There are those who wake up in the morning and say, "Good morning, Lord," and there are those who wake up in the morning and say, "Good Lord, it's morning."

Ladies Bible Study

The ladies bible study will be held Tuesday, at 10:30 am in the fellowship room. Our study is about " God's Promises ". Our time together will include prayer and songs of praise. You are welcome to join us.

Labor of Love

The Labor of Love will meet on Saturday, at noon in the fellowship room. Shirley Hatcher will present the devotion. Don't forget your gift of love for Hope Harbor.
