How Can I Read Them All?
by Steve Ridgell

I am an avid reader. Always have been for as long as I can remember. Right now I am looking at a stack of fifteen books I want to read. That does not count the dozen or so I want to pick up and add to the stack. I have shelves of books. Many of them are so good I ought to read them again. That must make forty or fifty I want to read right now. So if I read two or three a week I can be done in a few months. But that is not realistic, so how about one a week? Then I am done in a year. Unless I add any more to my list. And of course, I have not even considered the new books that will come out in the next year. There will be books from my favorite authors, books from new authors, old books that are new to me.

I want to read so many books, but there is one book I must read. It is the bestseller of all time. It is the book God wrote: the Bible. It is the story of God's relationship with man. It is the story of God's love. It is a story that you can read for yourself. It is a story of God... and you.

God knows you have lots of books out there. He even said in the Bible that there is no end to the making of books. He even recognizes that trying to read and study them all can be exhausting. But God also knows that he has a message for you. The Bible. Read it. It will literally change your life.
