TO OUR FRIENDS:

Here is a short synopsis of the story if you don't remember it:

The father had two sons. One stayed and was an obedient son. The other son asked for his part of his father's fortune. Then he went and squandered it all. He spent all the money and had nothing left. He was feeding the pigs and living in squalor. So he decided that he would be better off going back home and being a servant in his father's home. His father saw him coming back home from afar. Instead of giving his son a lecture about what a terrible thing he had done and maybe even disowning him.....the father opened up his arms and forgave his son. Without one word of criticism!!! This was not all the father did, he did even more than just forgiving him.....he told the servants to "bring forth the BEST". They were going to celebrate the sons return.

Our Father is Heaven loves us just like that. We are the prodigal children and He is our Father. He wants to give us "good things" and show us His unconditional love for us. He knows all about our unspoken and our overt sins of omission BUT He still LOVES us. That is called UNCONDITIONAL LOVE. Continued...

"...The Churches of Christ salute you." Romans 16:16

Continued...

You don't have to be a father to show UNCONDITIONAL LOVE to your children. Mothers need to do this too.

What we do and say.....what we don't do or say DOES make a difference in our children's lives. And what they see they will imitate. The Bible tells Husbands to love their wives like Christ love the Church. Don't be afraid to SHOW and EXPRESS your love for each other as parents. Children need to see that.

Children NEED to HEAR and SEE the LOVE you as a FATHER have for them. It doesn't matter if you are 4 or even 40.....we all need to be loved and accepted UNCONDITIONALLY.

UNCONDITIONAL means NOT because of what you do or say.....it is LOVE with NO conditions".
