Hebrews 11:24-25 – By Faith Moses, when he became of age, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin.

As we see with Moses, there comes a point in every person's life when he or she must decide what is the more important, following God or following the ways of man. Decision making can be both challenging and frustrating, yet there comes a time when life becomes a never-ending series of decisions, For Moses, he had to choose whether to remain in the royal family of Egypt, living a life of luxury and wealth, or to leave this and suffer with the people of God.

The question must be asked..did Moses' voluntary decision drastically affect his ultimate destiny? Of course, the answer is a resounding "yes", as he not only led God's people out of Egypt but about 1400 years later appeared with Jesus on the mount of transfiguration. The same question can be asked of each of us, will my voluntary choices affect my ultimate destiny? As is evidenced with Moses, godly choices result in heavenly blessings!

TO OUR FRIENDS:

“...The Churches of Christ salute you.” Romans 16:16

Sharing God's Word
By Rob Albright

God's desire is that everyone be saved (1 Tim.2:4) but that does not mean that all will be saved. Why not? Well, Paul wrote and said God also desires all come to a knowledge of the truth. Have you ever met someone who does not care about learning the truth?

So, how does God expect people to come to a knowledge of the truth? The answer is that God gave His disciples instructions to share the message of salvation to others (Matthew 28:16-20).

There are numerous opportunities to tell others the good news of Jesus' life, death, and resurrection (1 Corinthians 15:1-4). Sharing with others the word of God is like planting seed into the heart of another (Luke 8:4-15). It is important to understand that not everyone will accept the truth. But, that does not relieve us of the responsibility to share the message.
